Stubborn Case

"I was under the treatment of two doctors," writes Mrs. R. L. Phillips, of Indian Valley, Va., "and they pronounced my case a very stubborn one, of womanly weakness. I was not able to sit up, when I commenced to take Cardui.

I used it about one week, before, I saw much change. Now, the severe pain, that had been in my side for years, has gone, and I don't suffer at all. I am feeling better than in a long time, and cannot speak too highly of Cardui."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

if you are one of those ailing women who suffer from any of the troubles so common to women.

Cardui is a builder of womanly strength. Composed of purely vegetable ingredients, it acts quickly on the womanly system, building up womanly strength, toning up the womanly nerves, and regulating the womanly system. Cardui has been in successful use for more than 50 years. Thousands of ladies have written to tell of the benefit they received from it. Try it for your troubles. Begin today.

THE THEATERS

"Get Rich Quick Wallingford", "hooon" and others of equal celebrity. George M. Cohan's wonderfully successful comedy of that name, which will appear tonight at Robinson's Grand, is being sent on tour after its phenomenal run in New York City where it holds the record for dramatic performances for the season of 1911-12. The Chicago company, expressly organized to exploit the comedy in the Windy City, also made theatrical history by reason of its run of more than four hundred nights.

SCENE FROM "GET RICH QUICK WALLINGFORD."

Like all plays to which young Mr. Cohan affixes his signature, "Get Rich Quick Wallingford" is clean and wholesome and, while its dialogue is of the smartest, fairly bristling with pungent wit, the story never descends to suggestion, the vulgarly that is so often the resort of ambitious playwrights in their anxiety to "put a play over." On the contrary, Mr. Cohan has made "Wallingford" a clean, clear-eyed, lovable character who is cold as steel, firm as adamant, but who, for the love of a pure woman forsakes his shady past and becomes a respectable citizen in a community into which he has gone to acquire a fortune, in that easy manner known as the game of promotion.

Convention has been cast aside in staging "The Rose Maid," which appears here Saturday. It begins and ends with a riotous display of dancing girls, laughter and comedy, while the intervening two and a half hours are filled with dainty waltzes, two-steps that start the toes a tapping and brilliant concerted numbers that rouse the audience to volumes of applause. The score is by Bruno Granichstaedten, the youngest and one of the most talented of that group of Viennese composers who have swung continental Europe to the measures of the waltz. Werba and Luescher had the wisdom to bring him to this country and direct all rehearsals and the sweeping success of this elaborate offering was their reward.

At Robinson's Grand all next week, Mr. Kirk Brown and his efficient company of players will be seen in a series of high class plays, opening the engagement Monday afternoon. Mr. Brown is an actor of recognized ability and remarkable versatility, and the plays in which he will be seen cover an extensive range of stage offerings. He carries a car load of scenery and effects for these productions and every one will be put on with the amount of care and attention to detail that seldom marks a production outside of the metropolitan playhouse.

There will be a matinee every day during the engagement. "The Wife," David Belasco's great success will be the bill for Monday matinee, and "Raffles" Monday evening, followed by well known successes such as "A Grand Scenic Revival of 'The Two Orphans'" in which Mr. Brown wears two costumes costing $2,000. "Camille," Sarah Bernhardt's English version, "Northern Lights," a powerful play of great interest, "The Tr-

day of March, 1913, against the payment and delivery of the estate of said decedent to her legatees or distributees. And it is further ordered that copies of this order shall be posted and published in the manner and for the time prescribed by section thirty-one of chapter eighty-seven of the Code of West Virginia. A copy, Attest: W. GUY TETRICK, Clerk.

Skin Soothed and Healed by D. D. D.

itching skin, ugly eruptions, scaly scalp, Bozema and its allied diseases all yield instantly to the soothing influence of the mild, simple wash, the D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

From our experience with skin sufferers, we are convinced that skin disease is caused by germs beneath the outer skin that spread and multiply until they become a mass of gnawing animals. D.D.D., a penetrating liquid, destroys these germs and washes them away, thereby relieving that awful itch immediately. A 50c bottle will prove this much to you.

We are so confident that D.D.D. can reach all cases, that we offer you the first full-size bottle free if it does not do as we say. You, alone, to judge. D.D.D. Soap aids in keeping the skin pure; ask us.

At a special session of the County Court of Harrison County, held on the 2nd day of January, 1913, the following order was made and entered:

Fluctuating Settlement Approved etc. Estate of Susan J. Odell, deceased. The settlement of the accounts of Oren H. Odell, executor of the last will and testament of Susan J. Odell, deceased, the report thereon of Fred L. Shinn, Commissioner of Accounts, and the report of said Commissioner of the debts and demands against said decedent's estate, having been filed as directed by law, they were this day examined by the Court and no errors appearing upon the face thereof, and no exceptions thereto being filed, it is ordered that the said settlement and reports be, and the same is hereby, approved and confirmed; and that the same be recorded and filed as directed by law.

And a report of the accounts of said executor, and of the demands and debts against said decedent's estate having been filed in the office of the Clerk of this Court under chapter eighty-seven of the Code of West Virginia, and more than two years from the qualification of said executor having elapsed, on motion of said Oren H. Odell, who is a legatee of said decedent, it is ordered that the creditors of such decedent, Susan J. Odell, and all other persons concerned, do show cause, if any they can, before this court on Monday, the 10th
